

RPYC - Photo Stuff

Website Photos - Guidelines

Date – 09-02-2009

A - MOST IMPORTANT – The Event / Cruise Leader is responsible to select the Event / Cruise Photographer

If there is more than one person taking photos have them submit their photos to your Event / Cruise Photographer .. ie so one person can coordinate the event / cruise photos

B – Event / Cruise Photographer should copy all the photos into one 'Folder' on a Computer and then select and edit the final photos to be submitted to the Webmaster for publication to the Website

C - Convert your photographs to a 1024 format before sending them to Marv .. you should be able to send up to 100 images at a time ..

IrfanView is one program that will convert your photos to a smaller (1024) size .. you can download the free photo processing software titled IrfanView at <http://www.irfanview.com/>.

for complete instructions to set up IrfanView go to 'Photo Stuff' on the RPYC Website and click on .. IrfanView (Photo Tool – Instructions)

D – E-mail Photos - when you send your photos by e-mail be sure to include with your e-mail the following additional information ..

- Name of Cruise / event - _____
- Date of Cruise / Event - _____
- Cruise Leader(s) / Host / Hostess - _____
- Photos By – _____
- Write up about the Event or Cruise (two to three short paragraphs)

E – all photos (1024 format) and the Event / Cruise write up are to be submitted via E-mail to the Webmaster ..

Submit to Marv Market at
E-mail – marvboater1@aol.com
Phone – 239-560-1166
PO Box 1628
Fort Myers, FL 33902

F – after the Webmaster receives your photos, write up etc he will create the Event / Cruise Webpages and submit the 'links' to the Event / Cruise leader for any corrections .. once the Event / Cruise Leader approves the Webpages the Webmaster will post the Webpages on the RPYC Website

NOTE - the Webmaster reserves the right to decide which photos will be displayed on the RPYC Website

G – If for any reason the above guidelines are not followed the Event / Cruise will not be posted on the RPYC Website
